Article 10

Settlement of Disputes between a Contracting Party and an Investor of the other Contracting Party

1. Disputes arising between a Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party in respect of an investment of the latter in the territory of the former shall, as far as possible, be settled amicably.
2. If such disputes cannot be settled within a period of six (6) months from the date at which either party to the dispute requested amicable settlement by delivering a notice in writing to the other party, the dispute shall be submitted for resolution, at the election of the investor or the Contracting Party to the dispute, through one of the following means:
 - (a) in accordance with any applicable, previously agreed dispute settlement procedures; or
 - (b) domestic courts; or
 - (c) to international arbitration in accordance with the following paragraphs of this Article.
3. In the event that an investor or the Contracting Party to the dispute elects to submit the dispute for resolution to international arbitration the investor shall further provide its consent in writing for the dispute to be submitted to one of the following bodies:

- (a) (1) The International Centre for Settlement of Investment Disputes ("the Centre"), established pursuant to the Convention on the Settlement of Investment Disputes between States and Nationals of other States opened for signature at Washington, D.C., 18 March 1965 (the "Washington Convention"), if both Contracting Parties are parties to the Washington Convention and the Washington convention is applicable to the dispute;
 - (2) The Centre, under the rules governing the Additional Facility for the Administration of Proceedings by the Secretariat of the Centre (the "Additional Facility Rules"), if the Contracting Party of the investor or the Contracting Party to the dispute, but not both, is a party to the Washington Convention;
 - (b) an arbitral tribunal established under the Arbitration Rules("the Rules")of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL), as those Rules may be modified by the parties to the dispute (the Appointing Authority referred to under Article 7 of the Rules shall be the Secretary General of the Centre); or
 - (c) an arbitral tribunal constituted pursuant to the arbitration rules of any arbitral institution mutually agreed upon between the parties to the dispute.
4. Notwithstanding the fact that the investor or the Contracting Party to the dispute may have submitted a dispute to binding arbitration under paragraph 3, it may, prior to the institution of the arbitral proceeding or during the proceeding, seek before the judicial or administrative tribunals of the Contracting party that is a party to the dispute, interim injunctive relief for the preservation of its rights and interests, provided it does not include request for payment of any damages.
5. In any proceedings, judicial, arbitral or otherwise or in an enforcement of any decision or award, concerning an investment dispute between a Contracting Party and an investor of the other Contracting Party, a Contracting Party shall not assert, as a defense, its sovereign immunity. Any counterclaim or right of set-off may not be based on the fact that the investor concerned has received or will receive, pursuant to an insurance contract, indemnification or other compensation for all or part of its alleged damages from any third party whomsoever, whether public or private, including such other Contracting Party and its subdivisions, agencies or instrumentalities.

Article 11
Settlement of Disputes between the Contracting Parties

1. Disputes between the Contracting Parties concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement should, if possible, be settled through the diplomatic channel.
2. If a dispute has not been settled within six (6) months following the date on which such consultations or other diplomatic channels were requested by either Contracting Party and unless the Contracting Parties otherwise agree in writing, either Contracting Party may, by written notice to the other Contracting Party, submit the dispute to an ad hoc arbitral tribunal in accordance with the following provisions of this Article.
3. The arbitral tribunal shall be constituted as follows: each Contracting Party shall appoint one member, and these two members shall agree upon a national of a third State as Chairman of the arbitral tribunal to be appointed by the two Contracting Parties. Such members shall be appointed within two (2) months, and such Chairman within four (4) months, from the date on which either Contracting Party has informed either Contracting Party that it intends to submit the dispute to an arbitral tribunal.
4. If the periods specified in paragraph 3 above have not been complied with, either Contracting Party may, in the absence of any other arrangement invite the President of the International Court of Justice to make the necessary appointments. If the President of the International Court of Justice is a national of either Contracting Party or if he is otherwise prevented from discharging the said function, the Vice-President of the International Court of Justice next in seniority who is not a national of either Contracting Party shall be invited to make the necessary appointments.
5. The arbitral tribunal shall take its decision by majority of votes. Such decision shall be made in accordance with this Agreement and shall be final and binding on both Contracting Parties. Each Contracting Party shall bear the costs of the member of the arbitral tribunal appointed by that Contracting Party, as well as the costs for its representation in the arbitration proceedings. The expenses of the Chairman as well as any other costs of the arbitration proceedings shall be borne in equal parts by the two Contracting Parties. However, the arbitral tribunal may, at its discretion, direct that a higher proportion or all of such costs be paid by one of the Contracting Parties. In all other respects, the arbitral tribunal shall determine its own procedure.

Article 12
Denial of Benefits

The Contracting Parties may decide jointly in consultation to deny the benefits of this Agreement to an investor of the other Party that is an enterprise of such Party and to investments of such investors where the Party establishes that the enterprise is owned or controlled by persons of a Non-Party, or of the denying Party, and has no substantive business activity in the territory of the other Party.

Article 13
Investment and Environment

Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to prevent a Contracting Party from adopting, maintaining, or enforcing any measure that it considers appropriate to ensure that an investment activity in its territory is undertaken in accordance with the environmental laws of the Contracting Party, provided that such measures are proportional to the objectives sought.

Article 14
Application of other Rules

If the legislation of either Contracting party or obligations under international law existing at present or established hereafter between the Contracting Parties, in addition to this Agreement, contain rules, whether general or specific entitling investments by investors of the other Contracting party to a treatment more favourable than is provided for by this Agreement, such rules shall to the extent that they are more favourable to the investor prevail over this Agreement.

Article 15
Consultations and Amendments

1. Either Contracting Party may request consultations with the other Contracting Party on any matter affecting the application of this Agreement. Such consultations shall be held at a place and a time as may be agreed upon through diplomatic channels.

2. Any amendments to the provisions of this Agreement shall be mutually agreed upon, in writing, by the Contracting Parties, and shall come into force in accordance with the provisions of the entry into force of this Agreement.

Article 16
Entry and Sojourn of Personnel

A Contracting Party shall, subject to its laws applicable from time to time, consider the entry and sojourn of senior staffs in connection with the investments under this Agreement from such countries with whom the Contracting Parties have diplomatic relations.

Article 17
Relations between Contracting Parties

The provisions of this Agreement shall apply irrespective of the existence of diplomatic or consular relations between the Contracting Parties.

Article 18
Entry into Force

Each Contracting Party shall notify the other in writing when its constitutional requirements for the entry into force of this Agreement have been fulfilled. This Agreement shall enter into force on the thirtieth (30th) day after the date of receipt of the latter of the two notifications.

Article 19
Duration and Termination

1. This Agreement shall remain in force for a period of twenty (20) years and shall continue in force thereafter for similar period or periods unless, at least one year before the expiry of the initial or any subsequent period, either Contracting Party notifies the other Contracting Party in writing of its intention to terminate this Agreement.

2. In respect of investments made prior to the date when the notice of termination of this Agreement becomes effective, the provisions of this Agreement shall continue to be effective for a period of fifteen (15) years from the date of termination of this Agreement.

In witness whereof the undersigned, duly authorized by their respective Governments, have signed this Agreement.
